PRESS ADVISORY

CALIFORNIA BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY TO MEET IN SAN JOSE

Will hold election for new officers

(Sacramento, CA) –The California Board of Accountancy (CBA) will elect new officers when it meets in San Jose this week. The officers serve a one year term, which begins at the conclusion of the November meeting. CBA members will choose a new president, vice president, and secretary/treasurer.

The CBA agenda will also include a variety of topics of interest to consumers and CPAs. The meeting agenda and materials are available online on the CBA website at www.cba.ca.gov.

The meeting will be held Thursday, November 15, 2012, 12:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. and Friday, November 16, 2012, 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. and is available for live viewing via webcast at <http://www.cba.ca.gov/webcast/> and via archive for later viewing.

Updates are also available via Twitter at <http://twitter.com/CBAnews> and on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/CBAnews>

Created by statute in 1901, the CBA's mandate requires that protection of the public shall be its highest priority in exercising licensing, regulatory, and disciplinary functions. The CBA currently regulates more than 85,000 licensees, the largest group of licensed accounting professionals in the nation, including individuals, partnerships, and corporations.
